Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble When you have trouble with your stom ach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. Mrs. 3. Stengle, Plainfield, N. J., writes, "For over a month past I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklets came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who had been cured by Chamberlain's Tablets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost of a package of them and can now eat almost everything that I want." For sale by al dealers.—Advertisement.

Of Candidates for Nomination Should Be Paid by State Says Baldwin.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 28-Just as the state bears the expense of conducting elections, so should it bear the expenses -0 most of them-of candidates for party nominations at the primaries, in the opinion of Simeon E. Baldwin, governor of Connecticut, who ad dressed the Governors' Conference yesterday. Here is the list of candidates' expenses which Governor Baldwin would have the state shoul-

Printing and distribution of balots and other papers required by Traveling expenses of candidates o and from appointments for meetings incident to the campaign whether public or private. Traveling expenses of speakers in their behalf to and from public meetings.

Copying poll or registry lists. Providing challengers.

The burden of these legitimate ex penses, in most states, Governor Baldwin said, falls on the candidate for nomination and deters the poor man from entering the political lists, unless he puts himself under what he would be apt to deem an obligation to those who supply him with the necessary funds.

"The government must have a right," Governor Baldwin said, "in self-defense so to regulate the making of nominations, whether by party conventions or primaries or by direct primaries of the whole people, as, not to dictate the choice, but to assure that it fairly represents the choice of those who make it. The state must have a right, if the people are satisfied that such nominations by a party convention or primary can be replaced by another mode of proceding which gives them a better opportunity to make their wishes prevail, to institute this other mode. And what the state can institute it can protect."

There are certain stems of candidates' expenses which, in Governor Baldwin's opinion, it would be unwise to have the state pay. .. mong these are mentioned the cost of circulating nominating petitions and of hiring transportation for voters to polling places. The one, Governor Baldwin asserts, has shown that many persons sign such petitions without intending to vote for the candidate they thus help to place in nomination; the other could be made unnecessary by establishing more polling places.

Hall rent and a candidate's personal travel, postage and telegraph hills, might properly be borne the state as well as other items, Governor Baldwin asserted.
